Business awards

TICKETS have gone on sale for the Central Highlands Business Excellence Awards on October 17 at the Emerald Town Hall. The black tie event includes canapes and a three-course meal, live music and special guests demographer Bernard Salt and bush poet Gary Fogarty. Winners of 11 categories, including Business of the Year, will be announced. More than 100 nominations were received for the People's Choice for the customer service/customer relations award. The public voting system for this category will open soon. For more, go to www.chdc.com.au.
