» A toast

A photograph showing a man in a patterned shirt speaking into a microphone at a podium. A black bag with 'MIPRO' written on it is visible behind him. The foreground shows the back of a person's head with a ponytail.

PREPARE for a different toast for breakfast, when the CHDC Business Breakfast kicks off this morning at 6.30. The breakfast hosted at the McIndoe Park function centre, will have The Business of Mining: A Fresh Take served up with presentations from three high level representatives. It is $60 per person.
