

Awards launch

THE 2015 Central Highlands Business Excellence Awards have been launched, and will celebrate the efforts and achievements of the region's diverse and dedicated business community.

"They also recognise local businesses' contribution to economic vitality and to creating a strong, healthy, vibrant regional community," CHDC's Sandra Hobbs said.

"There is so much talent, passion and hard work in our business community and we think it's time this is once again recognised."